

Monkleigh Primary School Newsletter

Friday 14th November 2025

From the Headteacher

Dear Parents and Carers,

School Newsletter - Weekly Update

Dear Parents,

We're excited to reintroduce our weekly newsletter! While Class Dojo will remain our main communication platform, we hope this roundup of the past week and a preview of what's coming will be helpful.

This Week at School

Class 3 Cyber Safety Session

Two local police officers visited Class 3 to deliver an engaging session on Cyber Choices, helping children learn how to stay safe online.

• Family Group Afternoon

Children worked together in mixed-age family groups on fun teamwork challenges involving marshmallows and spaghetti. It was wonderful to see their creativity and collaboration!

Internet Safety Talk

Thank you to all who attended our parent internet safety session. We hope you found it informative and useful.

Butterflies Trip

Our Butterflies class enjoyed their annual visit to Merry Harriers – always a highlight of the year!

This is Monkleigh

• Children in Need

A big thank you for your generous donations! The children looked fantastic in their yellow and red outfits, with plenty of Pudsey ears on display.

Reminders for Next Week

- Saturday 15th Reception admissions opens CitizenPortal primary admissions Sept 2026
- Friday 21st FSU visit to Torrington Commons
- Sign up for FOM's Christmas Craft Evenings Spaces are limited, so please register soon!

Thank you for your continued support. We look forward to another great week ahead!

Warm regards, Mrs Reeves

Parking Reminder

Please continue to park considerately around the school. Keeping our roads safe ensures that drop-offs and collections run smoothly for everyone. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sport

Workout Wednesday is staying! Children can come to school in full PE kit — no uniform required that day.

Please remember:

- PE shoes every day
- A dry pair of socks
- Full PE kit for any after-school sports clubs

For any questions, please message via Dojo or email: sport@monkleigh-primary.devon.sch.uk
